Why Learn in Public?

If you share the process of learning online, you will receive much more feedback than sharing in print. That will accelerate your learning. I believe everyone in the world has unique experiences and learning and it's valuable for someone in the world. Unless it appears, it'll be just lost and it's also a loss for human society.

Jane Wilde:

Hey all, great to meet everyone. So where are we on this?

Oscar Maine:

Hi Jane. We'll prepare and share an overview deck with your team this week. Please have your colleagues take a look at it.

Jane Wilde:

Thanks Oscar. Do you have a timeline for setting up an integration with our ERP? That would be very helpful.

Meeting Writeup:
